PRESS RELEASE

DAJIN TO BENEFIT FROM ARGENTINA ELECTIONS

November 3, 2015 - Vancouver, BC - Dajin Resources Corp. (“Dajin”) (TSX-V: DJI) (OTC: DJIFF) (Frankfurt: A1XF20): is pleased to report that the first round of the Argentine Presidential Elections held on October 25th showed a shift towards more pro-business oriented candidates. The result of the first round was so clear that whatever the result of the second round, it is expected that the next Government will have to create a better environment for business, particularly for small and medium sized companies.

The driving force of this change came from the farmers of the green belt in the provinces of Buenos Aires, Santa Fé and Córdoba, who have been burdened by taxation directed to the support of other sectors of the economy. In the Province of Jujuy, where Dajin holds its land position, the Peronist party was defeated for the first time since the creation of the party in 1946. Dajin looks forward to renewed development activity in Jujuy Province.

About Dajin: (www.dajin.ca)

Dajin is an early stage energy metals exploration company holding a 100% interest in 150 placer claims known to contain lithium and boron values in the Teels Marsh region of Mineral County, Nevada. These claims, which cover 3,010 acres (1,218 hectares), was the birth place of US Borax Corp’s first borax mine. Dajin also hold a 100% interest in claims covering 2,811 acres (1,138 hectares) in Alkali Lake region of Esmeralda County, Nevada, 12 kilometers (7 miles) northeast of Rockwood’s Clayton Valley Lithium operations.

Dajin also holds a 100% interest in concessions or concession applications in Jujuy Province, Argentina that were acquired in regions known to contain brines with potassium, lithium and boron values. These concessions total approximately 100,000 hectares (247,000 acres) with 80,248 hectares (198,000 acres) located in the Salinas Grandes/Guayatayoc salt lakes basin adjacent to concessions held by Orocobre Limited (ORL-T: TSX), who is partnered with Toyota Tsusho. Dajin recently completed an agreement with the Tres Morres community for exploration of the 4,400 hectare (10,873 acres) San Jose and Navidad concessions within the Salinas Grandes salar.
